25X1

25X1 25X1 25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1 25X1

CHRUX

14 May 1984

Chief, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Bangladesh Branch South Asia Division, NESA SUBJECT: Memorandum for the Record Regarding Briefing of Mr. Kevin Nealer on 11 May 1984 1. Mr. Nealer is a staff member of the Senate Democratic Policy Committee who was here on behalf of Sen. Byrd. of PAB/SO/NESA presented a briefing on the current state of the Afghan war. 2. We addressed the position of Soviet forces in Afghanistan in terms of size, composition, salient characteristics, and operations. Similar topics were treated regarding the Afghan army but our focus was on the problems of the Afghans. We discussed the various insurgent groups, their problems, and prospects. provided an overview of the current Soviet campaign in the Panjsher Valley, and treated the new, distinctive elements of this operation in contrast to previous campaigns. 3. In response to Mr. Nealer's questions, we identified the key events which would signal a major escalation or change in Soviet policy re the conduct of the war. We told Mr. Nealer we could not respnd to his question regarding the source of Afghan insurgents' beyond pointing out that they did in fact capture weapons from both Soviet and Afghan army units.	MEMORANDUM FOR:	DDI Rep/Office of Legislative Liaison 7B02 HQS
1. Mr. Nealer is a staff member of the Senate Democratic Policy Committee who was here on behalf of Sen. Byrd. of PAB/SO/NESA presented a briefing on the current state of the Afghan war. 2. We addressed the position of Soviet forces in Afghanistan in terms of size, composition, salient characteristics, and operations. Similar topics were treated regarding the Afghan army but our focus was on the problems of the Afghans. We discussed the various insurgent groups, their problems, and prospects. provided an overview of the current Soviet campaign in the Panjsher Valley, and treated the new, distinctive elements of this operation in contrast to previous campaigns. 3. In response to Mr. Nealer's questions, we identified the key events which would signal a major escalation or change in Soviet policy re the conduct of the war. We told Mr. Nealer we could not respnd to his question regarding the source of Afghan insurgents' beyond pointing out that they did in fact capture	FROM:
policy Committee who was here on behalf of Sen. Byrd. of PAB/SO/NESA presented a briefing on the current state of the Afghan war. 2. We addressed the position of Soviet forces in Afghanistan in terms of size, composition, salient characteristics, and operations. Similar topics were treated regarding the Afghan army but our focus was on the problems of the Afghans. We discussed the various insurgent groups, their problems, and prospects. provided an overview of the current Soviet campaign in the Panjsher Valley, and treated the new, distinctive elements of this operation in contrast to previous campaigns. 3. In response to Mr. Nealer's questions, we identified the key events which would signal a major escalation or change in Soviet policy re the conduct of the war. We told Mr. Nealer we could not respnd to his question regarding the source of Afghan insurgents' beyond pointing out that they did in fact capture	SUBJECT:
	the current state 2. We addred Afghanistan in techaracteristics, regarding the Afg the Afghans. We problems, and procurrent Soviet canew, distinctive previous campaign 3. In response to the contract of the provious campaign and procurrent soviet canew, distinctive previous campaign and procured to the provious campaign and procured to the provious campaign and procured to the provious campaign and provious campai	who was here on behalf of Sen. Byrd. of PAB/SO/NESA presented a briefing on e of the Afghan war. essed the position of Soviet forces in erms of size, composition, salient and operations. Similar topics were treated ghan army but our focus was on the problems of discussed the various insurgent groups, their espects. provided an overview of the ampaign in the Panjsher Valley, and treated the elements of this operation in contrast to elements of this operation in contrast to elements of the war we identified the would signal a major escalation or change in the conduct of the war. We told Mr. Nealer we to his question regarding the source of Afghan and pointing out that they did in fact capture

SECRET